Appetizer

Small culinary delights that entice your taste buds for worldwide appetites

Bay of Pigs Empanadas

A rare Cuban delight conjured by experienced CIA trained cooks under the tutelage of Chef John Fitzgerald Kennedy

This dish was inspired by the successful introduction of the "Remember the Maine" shrimp scampi first introduced by Chef Teddy Roosevelt.

Hearts of Mi Lai Salad

A combination of flambéed and sliced rare meats combined with wilted head lettuce.

Main Course

This meal was meticulously developed through the cooperation of three outstanding Chefs; John Fitzgerald Kennedy, Lyndon Baines Johnson and Richard Milhouse Nixon

Lemongrass Cong Fish

Rice Patties Westmorland accompanies this exquisite dish.

Assistant Chef Henry Kissinger adding a flavorful South American touch suggested the side dish of Allende Calzones Rotos.

Dessert

Our finishing touch to this elegant meal derives from the Middle East with all its exotic attractions. Chef George W. Bush and the NeoCon Culinary Institute painstakingly developed this pièce de 'résistance.

Iraqi Halaqem

This wonderfully sweet dish nearly demands you to consume more. It is a blend of disparate and costly ingredients that are wrapped in unleavened dough.

Each piece is carefully fried in Light Sweet Cheney Oil for an excitingly crisp crunch.

Bon Appétit!

Dedicated to the memory of William Rawson and Carl Thorne-Thompson
